

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

EALING: CALENDAR OF EVENTS

2 MARCH 2026 – 10 MARCH 2026

This year we are holding a calendar of events throughout March which includes in-person stalls, talks and marches in collaboration with Advance, Southall Black Sisters, CGL, Cranstoun, EHCVS, Let's Go Southall, Housing for Women, Hestia, Women's Wellness Zone, Southall Community Alliance, the Police and council services.

Ealing invites everyone to join in celebrating International Women's Day by signing up and attending events from our calendar below. This calendar will be updated with further details and events as they become available – find the latest version here www.saferealing.co.uk/news/events/

Date	Time	Theme/Details/Venue	Open to:
2 March	11:15am – 12:15pm	Violence Against Women and Girls Information Stand What: Join local police officers for a violence against women and girls (VAWG) awareness raising and engagement stall. The stall will be outside Northolt Leisure Centre. No booking required. Where: Northolt Leisure Centre Eastcote Lane North, Northolt UB5 4AB Click here for more information	Public
3 March	10:00am-11:00am	Storytelling time in Perivale Library What: Perivale Library holds weekly story time sessions for pre-school children. Police will reading a female empowerment book during Storytime at Perivale Library. No booking required. Where: Perivale Library, Horsenden Lane South, Perivale UB6 7NT Click here for more information about this event and regular events at Perivale Library	Public
	11:00am-12:00pm	VAWG Information Stand at Perivale Library What: Join local police officers for a violence against women and girls (VAWG) awareness raising and engagement stall. The stand will be at Perivale Library. No booking required. Where: Perivale Community Library, Horsenden Lane South, Perivale UB6 7NT Click here for more information about this event and regular events at Perivale Library	Public

5 March	1:00pm – 2:00pm	Violence Against Women and Girls Crime Prevention Stall What: Join the conversation with Metropolitan Police on preventing violence against women and girls. No booking required. Where: Hanwell Community Centre, Westcott Crescent, W7 1PD Click here for more details	Public
6 March	11:00am - 02:00 pm	International Women’s Day event at Southall Town Hall What: Come and join us this International Women’s Day! Be part of a supportive women’s circle featuring shared testimonials, open discussions on women’s issues, Q&A, and information on services including housing support, refugee assistance, and mental wellbeing. Plus, enjoy fun and interactive activities as we connect, empower, and celebrate together! No booking required. Where: 1 High St, Southall UB1 3HA, United Kingdom	Public
	10:00am –12:15pm	Safe Haven at Haven Green What: Metropolitan Police and Ealing Safer Communities Officers will be holding an Intentional Women's Day Event outside Morrison's Acton W3. On Saturday the 7th of March, between 10:00 - 12:15. Officers will be handing out crime prevention advice and leaflets during this event. No booking required. Where: On the Mount outside Morrisons, King St, Acton, W3 9NX Click here for more information.	Public
7 March	12:00pm – 4:30pm	Million Women Rise March and Rally What: The 19th annual march and rally organised by Black and Global Majority women will be taking place in Central London. Assembly starts at 12:00 pm at Duke Street, W1U, with the Rally taking place at 3:00pm – 4:30pm at Trafalgar Square. Please check the website closer to the day for any changes to the meeting point and route. No booking required. Where: Duke Street Mayfair, W1U 1, and Trafalgar Square, WC2N 5DS. Click here for more information about Million Women Rise and for the latest information on assemble and rally starting points.	Public

7 - 8 March	8:30pm – 1:00am	Safe Haven at Ealing Broadway What: The Safe Haven is a place for members of the public to stop by on their journey home or their journey out to speak to local officers. The Metropolitan Police Service will be working in partnership with St. Mungo's from Saturday night until Sunday morning at Ealing Broadway station to address women's safety at night. Police presence and dedicated officers will provide support and practical help, free water and phone chargers. Where: Ealing Broadway Station, W5 2NU Click here for more information.	Public
8 March	2:30pm – 6:30pm	Self Defence Classes What: In recognition of International Women's Day (8th March 2026) the London Borough of Ealing, in partnership with the Metropolitan Police are sponsoring a FREE 4-hour women's basic self-defence workshop, run by Team TKM. Where: Gauntlet Fight Academy, 1A Haven Green, London W5 2UU (RSVP required), Click here for more information	Public
8 March	11:00am – 3:00pm	A Collective Courageous Community of Women What: Organised by Sahara Sisterhood, the event focuses on empowerment and connection. It is focused on celebrating the strength and resilience of women from all walks of life. This is a space to share stories, uplift one another, and build a supportive community. Light Lunch and refreshments will be available, booking is essential. Where: Norwood Hall - Sri Guru Singh Sabha, Southall, UB2 4LA (RSVP required), please register on Eventbrite	Public
9 March	11:00am – 2:00pm	International Women's Day Celebration What: Organised by Housing for Women, Forward UK, Hestia, Refuge and Women's Wellness Zone, this One Stop Shop style event invites all service users and professionals in Ealing to come along and meet with local service providers uplifting women in Ealing. The event is informal, so please come along and share a cup of tea and meet other women in the borough. We will be finishing the event with an inspiring word and a poem by local Councillor Grace Quansah. No booking required. Where: OPEN Ealing, Arts Centre, Unit 14, School Lane, Dickens Yard, W5 2TD	Public
10 March	11:00am-12:00pm	Generation Equality: Young People Shaping a Safer Ealing for Women and Girls What: Join us for a crucial online Ealing Voice Network session organised by Ealing and Hounslow Community Voluntary Service (EHCVS) specifically designed for Voluntary and Community Sector (VCS) organisations. This Network session will focus on how VCS organisations can play a key role in making Ealing safer for women and girls. Where: Online (RSVP required), please register on Eventbrite	Public

